

League of Women Voters of Pueblo
Making Democracy Work Award

The League of Women Voters of Pueblo is pleased to announce they will be presenting the 2017 Annual Making Democracy Work Award on May 18, 2017. This award will recognize a community leader over age 50 who has contributed to the community in a positive and meaningful way. Nominations will be accepted through April 30, 2017. You can return your nomination by

- sending to P. O. Box 521 Pueblo CO 81002,
- bringing a print copy to any LWV of Pueblo luncheon or evening meeting
- emailing to makingdemocracywork@lwvpueblo.org

Who can Participate

Any citizen of Pueblo County who is:

- A person 50 or older
- Not currently serving as an elected official
- Not a current board member of the LWV of Pueblo

Criteria the Selection Committee will be considering

- Involvement with community in influential way (quietly or publically)
- Career or volunteer work serving the public
- Support and encouragement of equality and empowerment
- Service on community boards, commissions, and memberships in community organizations.

NOMINATION FORM (please use back or additional pages to give the committee enough information)

Name of Nominee: _____

Address: _____ Phone number _____

Name of person submitting nomination: _____ (your phone in case we have questions) _____

The League of Women Voters celebrates community leaders who have visions of a better community, and the ability to attract others to help carry out enrichment plans. How does this nominee exemplify this type of leadership? Be specific.

Describe what impact this individual has had on our community and to what degree the individual has included, involved or otherwise brought together diverse or disparate groups? Be Specific.